INTERNET SAFETY CLASS

The Sidney Police Department in conjunction with Wal-Mart is proud to announce a unique learning opportunity for both parents and children ages 10 through 14 on topics relating to the internet, computers and cell phone use in today's world.

Topics of discussion will include:

1. Cyberbullying
2. Social media
3. Sexting
4. Legal considerations
5. Computer & Cell phone forensics

This class will be taught by members of the Sidney Police Department and is designed for parents and children to attend together. The class is open to any resident of Shelby County who has school age children between 10 and 14 years of age. The program will provide up to date information about the digital age we live in and educate parents and children on the benefits and dangers of the internet. Class size is limited to 48 participants (24 parents and 24 children) and will be held at the Sidney Police Dept. training facility on July 29, 2014 from 6 to 8 PM. Participants are asked to pre-register by July 22, 2014. If more than 48 participants apply a second date may be scheduled later in the summer.

Registration applications can be obtained from the Sidney Police Dept. records office or by going online to www.sidneyoh.com and clicking on the "Internet Safety Registration" link. Applications can be returned to the Police Dept. records office or returned in email to rjameson@sidneyoh.com

Questions can be directed to Sgt. Rob Jameson at 937-498-2351
